Christy Nelson Flater

I thought I'd share this with you all of how I just got 9 new facials booked before Aug 31 by using facebook & email with the New York New You Makeover Contest that Mary Kay is taking the bill on this one and we are getting all the benefits! I used fb to individually message (not a group message, not just post) to send out for everyone and for my professional business portfolio as well. I know all be getting more!!!

Hi Joey!

We haven't seen each other in awhile. Hope you are doing great! I'm chatting with you, because I'm in a super huge Mary Kay contest to complete 30 before & after makeovers where you try some amazing skin care, do a quick color look and then give me your honest opinion about it.

Plus, you have a chance to win a trip to New York for 2 with a new fashionista wardrobe! I want to give you a FREE GIFT if you will try it for me. It's Fun, Free, & No Obligation! Can I borrow you for this?

Thanks a bunch!

Hi Karen,

I thought of you, because I'm putting together a professional women's portfolio to help others build their business as you help build mine. It is getting together for a before & after makeover where you try some amazing skin care, do a quick color look and then give me your honest opinion about it. Then you fill out a sheet that advertises your business in my portfolio that I'll pass around at all my events and parties to give you an easy way to get your name out there.

Plus, when we get together in the next 2 weeks, you'll have a chance to win a trip to New York for 2 with a new fashionista wardrobe for Mary Kay's New York, New You contest! I want to give you a FREE GIFT if you will try it for me. It's Fun, Free, & No Obligation! Can I borrow you for this?

Thanks a bunch!
