1. It sounds like a great Opportunity, but I'd rather support my consultant & have the privilege to earn Free products periodically with updated make-over parties.

2. I'm really curious & would love to take some information home to look over.

3. Maybe? Not sure, but please give me some info & I'd like to get together to at least hear all of the details, with no obligation.

4. Wow! Only $100! I'd like to give it a try! I can get my products at cost, have fun, make some extra money, & who knows, maybe even earn the use of a Career Car?!
