

Challenge: Book 20 Sharp Customers to Host a Party for me this month!!

This is so in the bag!!! Everyone LOVES ME and wants to help me out!!

Hi Susan! It's Rosann, your Mary Kay girl! I have a quick question for you, do you have a minute? As of _____ (date) I'm in an OUTRAGEOUS challenge to find 20 people to book a party for me in the next month. Because this challenge is so crazy I'm giving my 20 hostesses $100 in free product for just getting 5 friends together who are over 21 unless married and don't have a MK consultant. They don't need to even buy anything! You don't even have to clean your house; we can host it at my MK building! I was hoping you'd be one of my 20 hostesses. :) You've always been so supportive of me and my business; is there any reason why we can't get together this month with 5 of your best friends?

Great! Where would you like to host your party your house or my MK building?

Can I tell you the dates I have available and you can see if any of them work for you?

Perfect. As part of my challenge, I only have two days to prove that I have booked these parties. I can't say I have booked the party unless I have a guest list of 20 people who you have invited and they said that they can come. Can you email me your guest list, addresses and phone numbers so that I can get credit for my contest before _____ (48 hours from now)?

If they can't host a party for me this month, then I ask if I can invite them if I do this contest again. 😊
