Tips for the game: 8 -Some Suggestions that will help you develop the game in the Top pool: Exercise sensitivity: 8 -The most important aspect of the ground pool is the ability to target and carefully control the effects. Make some time to make a hiring and make it sensitive to the way of reacting to various shots of White. Use spin with wisdom: Spin (otherwise "English") may be a powerful tool in a pool of 8 white, but it may be easy to abuse or abuse. Use a small amount of rotation and use only when it helps to set a better effect or alleviate a difficult effect. Plan your strikes: Think of it in advance and try to plan your strikes to facilitate the floods of balls and 8 balls. Think about how the balls will be sunk and try to leave good positions for future impacts. Pay attention to the table: Pay attention to the arrangement of the balls on the table and try to imagine the best way to leave them under water. Search for balls that can be broken with a blow and try to protect a good position for the strokes below. Use the right amount of power: too much energy balls hammers can be serious enough to guide inadequate power. Try to find the right balance and use only enough power to perform the activity. Defensive Game: Sometimes it is better to play defensive and let your opponent return to a difficult shot. This can be particularly useful when the ball is still on the table and you try to leave. Follow the rules: Read the rules to play Paden 8 and make sure you know all the fouls or penalties that can be applied during the game.
